

Indigenous Guardians Technical Support Team

GUARDIAN'S HOUR WITH JIMMY MORGAN

JOIN US!

TUESDAY - FEBRUARY 22ND

10 - 11:30PM (PST)

Click here to register!

Guardian's Hour is a free monthly, drop-in event for Indigenous Guardians to share about their work in the field.

Led by Gitanyow Lax'yip Guardian and TST facilitator—Jimmy Morgan—this space is for Indigenous Guardians to discuss the unique elements of their work, share their experiences, and build community.

WHO IS THIS EVENT FOR?

Indigenous on-the-land workers who collect data for their Nation (Indigenous Guardians, Land Stewards, Environmental Technicians, Monitors, and Coordinators)

REGISTER HERE!

HAVE QUESTIONS?

Contact emily.diemert@natureunited.ca

CONNECT WITH US!

James (Jimmy) Morgan is the lead Guardian and field supervisor for the Gitanyow Lax'yip Guardian program and a facilitator for the Technical Support Team. Jimmy is passionate about supporting other Indigenous Guardians, prioritizing Guardian's mental, spiritual, and emotional wellness in and out of the field.

