

Indigenous Guardians Technical Support Team

GUARDIAN'S HOUR WITH JIMMY MORGAN

June's Theme: Indigenous Guardian Sharing Circle

JOIN US!

TUESDAY - JUNE 7TH

10 - 11:30AM (PST)

Click here to register!

Guardian's Hour is a free monthly event exclusively for Indigenous Guardians (the technicians or on-the-land workers who are part of an Indigenous Guardians program) to discuss the unique elements of their work in an inclusive and confidential space.

Guardian's Hour is hosted by lead Guardian and field supervisor for the Gitanyow Lax'yip Guardian program and TST Facilitator, Jimmy Morgan.

James (Jimmy) Morgan / Hlik is the lead Guardian and field supervisor for the Gitanyow Lax'yip Guardian program and a facilitator for the Technical Support Team. Jimmy is passionate about supporting other Indigenous Guardians, prioritizing Guardian's mental, spiritual, and emotional wellness in and out of the field.

WHO IS THIS EVENT FOR?

*Indigenous on-the-land workers
(Indigenous Guardians, Land Stewards, Environmental Technicians, Monitors, and Coordinators)*

REGISTER HERE!

HAVE QUESTIONS?

Contact emily.diemert@natureunited.ca

CONNECT WITH US!

